30th January 2019

BAC WELCOMES SAMANTHA MURRAY AS ATHLETE NETWORK MANAGER

The BAC is pleased to announce that Samantha Murray has joined the BAC as Athlete Network Manager. Samantha, fresh from retiring from high performance sport having competed at the Rio Olympic Games as a Modern Pentathlete, has joined the BAC team to engage with current athletes to provide support to athlete representatives, as well as ensure the voice of the BAC membership has a strong channel of communication to the organisation. Samantha a seasoned athlete having won a silver medal at the 2012 Summer Olympic Games as well as three world championship titles during her career will provide additional insight and support to the BAC team.

Victoria Aggar Executive Chair of the BAC said: "I am really pleased to have Samantha joining the BAC team. Her experience as an athlete, as well as her enthusiasm and passion for supporting other athletes will be a great addition to the new and experienced team that is now in place".

Samantha said: "It's so exciting to start something new so soon after retirement. I feel very passionate about this role and am looking forwards to building excellent communications and relationships within our membership."
